Historical Background of Goldenbridge Orphanage

Founding and Purpose

Goldenbridge Orphanage was established in 1856 by the Sisters of Mercy in Dublin, Ireland. Originally intended as a refuge for orphaned and abandoned children, the institution grew over the decades to accommodate hundreds of boys and girls. Its mission was rooted in religious and charitable objectives, aiming to provide shelter, education, and moral guidance.

Life Inside the Orphanage

Children at Goldenbridge experienced a strict, regimented daily routine designed to instill discipline and religious values. The environment was characterized by:

- Structured daily schedules, including chores, schooling, and prayer
- Limited personal freedom, with restrictions on movement and activities
- Emphasis on discipline, often enforced through corporal punishment

Despite these challenges, many children also found moments of friendship, learning, and community within the orphanage walls.
