The Income Tax Act of South Africa

In 2013, South Africa's income tax system was primarily governed by the Income Tax Act No. 58 of 1962, which has undergone numerous amendments to adapt to economic and social changes. This act provides the legal foundation for defining taxable income, determining tax liabilities, and establishing compliance procedures. It delineates the responsibilities of taxpayers and the powers of the South African Revenue Service (SARS), ensuring a structured and enforceable tax collection process.

Role of SARS and Policy Objectives

The South African Revenue Service (SARS) functions as the administrative authority tasked with implementing tax laws, collecting revenue, and ensuring compliance. In 2013, SARS focused on improving taxpayer compliance, enhancing tax administration technology, and broadening the tax base. The overarching policy objectives included fostering economic growth, reducing income inequality through equitable taxation, and ensuring sufficient revenue for public services.

Taxpayer Classifications and Categories

Individuals

Individuals, including residents and non-residents, are taxed on their worldwide or South African-sourced income, respectively. Resident individuals are taxed on their global income, whereas non-residents are taxed only on income derived within South Africa.

Companies and Corporate Entities
