The Scope of Income Taxation in 2014

What Is Subject to Income Tax?

In 2014, the U.S. tax system primarily taxes income, which includes a wide range of earnings from various sources. The scope of taxable income encompasses:

- Wages and Salaries: Compensation received for employment.
- Business Income: Profits from sole proprietorships, partnerships, or corporations.
- Investment Income: Dividends, interest, capital gains, and rental income.
- Other Income: Alimony received, gambling winnings, royalties, and taxable scholarships.

Understanding what constitutes taxable income is fundamental to determining tax liability.

Types of Taxpayers

The 2014 tax system classifies taxpayers broadly into:

- Individuals: Most taxpayers fall into this category, with income reported on Form 1040.

- Corporations: Subject to corporate income tax.
- Partnerships and LLCs: Generally pass-through entities, with income reported on individual or entity returns.
- Estates and Trusts: Taxed on income they generate.

Knowing the classification affects the tax rules and rates applicable.

Core Principles of Income Tax Fundamentals

1. Gross Income Concept

The starting point for taxation is gross income, which includes all income from whatever source derived unless specifically excluded by law. Whittenburg emphasizes the importance of understanding gross income as the basis for calculating taxable income.

2. Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)

After determining gross income, taxpayers can subtract certain adjustments, such as:

- Student loan interest
- IRA contributions
- Moving expenses (for members of the Armed Forces)

This results in Adjusted Gross Income (AGI), a critical figure for many tax calculations and eligibility for deductions and credits.

3. Deductions and Credits

Taxpayers can reduce their taxable income through:

- Deductions: Expenses subtracted before calculating tax liability (e.g., standard deduction, itemized deductions).
- Tax Credits: Amounts subtracted directly from tax owed (e.g., Earned Income Credit, Child Tax Credit).

Understanding the difference between deductions and credits is vital for effective tax planning.

4. Tax Rates and Brackets

The 2014 tax system employed a progressive tax rate structure, with rates ranging from 10% to 39.6%. Tax brackets vary based on filing status (single, married filing jointly, etc.) and taxable income levels.

Key Components of Income Tax Law in 2014

Legal Foundations

The primary statutory authority for income tax is the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), specifically Title 26 of the United States Code. Whittenburg's 2014 edition interprets and applies these provisions, guiding taxpayers and practitioners.

Regulations and IRS Guidance

The IRS issues regulations, revenue rulings, and other guidance to clarify statutory provisions. Understanding these helps in applying law correctly.

Tax Filing Requirements

In 2014, the IRS required individuals earning above certain thresholds to file annual returns. Key points include:

- Filing deadlines (typically April 15).
- Necessary forms (Form 1040, Schedule A, Schedule C, etc.).
- Recordkeeping requirements.

Income Recognition and Timing

When Is Income Recognized?

Income recognition rules determine when income is taxable. Generally, income is recognized when:

- It is earned (for accrual basis taxpayers).
- It is received (for cash basis taxpayers).

Whittenburg emphasizes the importance of consistent accounting methods for accurate reporting.

Constructive Receipt Doctrine

Income is taxable when it is actually or constructively received, even if not physically in hand, such as a check that is available but not yet cashed.

- Wages and salaries (Form W-2)
- Business income (Schedule C)

- Rental income
- Other miscellaneous sources

Step 2: Calculate Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)

Subtract allowable adjustments from gross income:

- Student loan interest deduction

- Educator expenses

Step 3: Subtract Standard or Itemized Deductions

Taxpayers choose between:

Step 7: Subtract Tax Credits

Apply credits such as the Child Tax Credit or Earned Income Tax Credit to reduce the final tax liability.
