Overview of National Theatre Connections 2015

The National Theatre Connections program is designed to support youth theatre companies across the UK by providing them with contemporary scripts that challenge and inspire. Each year, a selection of new plays is commissioned or curated, and these are then performed by young actors in various venues nationwide. The 2015 selection was notable for its diverse range of stories, styles, and themes, reflecting the societal issues and cultural conversations prevalent at the time.

The 2015 lineup included ten plays, each offering a unique perspective on contemporary life, identity, social justice, and personal growth. These plays were not only performances but also catalysts for discussion, creativity, and community engagement.

Highlights of the 2015 Plays

1. The Fall by Ella Hickson

Themes: Power, corruption, societal collapse

Overview: Ella Hickson's The Fall is a gripping and intense play that examines the corrupting influence of power and the fragility of societal structures. Set in a dystopian future, it follows a group of young protagonists navigating a crumbling world, prompting reflection on authority and individual agency.

Why it stands out: The play's visceral language and stark imagery challenge young actors and audiences to confront uncomfortable truths about governance and morality. Its dystopian setting also encourages discussions about current political climates and environmental issues.

2. The Inconsistent Human by Mark Wheeler

Themes: Identity, mental health, societal expectations

Overview: This play explores the complexities of mental health through the story of a young person grappling with their sense of self amid societal pressures. Through a series of interconnected scenes, it delves into themes of stigma, understanding, and empathy.

Why it stands out: Its accessible yet profound script makes it a powerful tool for raising awareness about mental health among young people. The play's structure allows for innovative staging and performance techniques, encouraging creative experimentation.

3. The Wolves by Sarah DeLappe (adapted version for youth companies)

Themes: Competition, gender roles, adolescence

Overview: Originally a Pulitzer finalist, The Wolves centers on a high school girls' indoor soccer team, capturing their conversations, rivalries, and aspirations. The play offers a candid look at adolescence, friendship, and societal expectations.

Why it stands out: Its sharp, authentic dialogue and ensemble nature provide ample opportunity for young performers to develop character work and ensemble cohesion. It also sparks conversations about gender identity and peer relationships.

4. Bystander by Alice Coppock

Themes: Bystander effect, peer pressure, social responsibility

Overview: Bystander is a thought-provoking play that examines how individuals respond or fail to respond in situations of social injustice. Through a series of vignettes, it explores themes of complicity and moral courage.

Why it stands out: The play's relevance to contemporary issues like bullying and social activism makes it a compelling choice for youth companies eager to tackle social justice themes.

5. Stiletto by Matthew Whittet

Themes: Identity, sexuality, modern relationships

Overview: Stiletto explores the complexities of modern relationships and self-discovery. The play follows a young protagonist navigating love, sexuality, and societal expectations, set against a backdrop of urban life.

Why it stands out: Its contemporary dialogue and relatable themes resonate with young audiences, fostering open discussions about sexuality and identity.

6. The Empty Quarter by Hannah Khalil

Themes: War, displacement, cultural conflict

Overview: This poignant play tells the story of young refugees fleeing conflict zones, highlighting resilience, hope, and the human cost of war. It combines personal narratives with broader socio-political commentary.

Why it stands out: Its emotive storytelling and immersive staging challenge young performers to handle sensitive material with authenticity and empathy.

7. The Great Escape by Laura Lomas

Themes: Freedom, rebellion, childhood innocence

Overview: A playful yet meaningful exploration of childhood and the desire for freedom, The Great Escape follows a group of children plotting their imaginative escape from constraints imposed by adults.

Why it stands out: Its lively dialogue and theatricality encourage energetic performances and inventive staging, ideal for engaging young actors and audiences.

8. The Lost Boy by Mark Wheeler

Themes: Childhood trauma, loss, hope

Overview: This emotionally charged piece examines the impact of loss on young lives through the story of a boy coping with the disappearance of a loved one. It addresses themes of grief, resilience, and hope.

Why it stands out: Its sensitive handling of complex emotions makes it a valuable resource for youth companies aiming to explore profound human experiences.

9. Where Do We Go From Here? by James Graham

Themes: Political engagement, activism, future of democracy

Overview: A play that encourages young people to consider their roles within democracy, Where Do We Go From Here? prompts discussion about political participation, activism, and societal change.

Why it stands out: Its interactive structure and topical content inspire young audiences to think critically about their future and their voice.

10. The Sky is Ours by Ella Hickson

Themes: Ambition, dreams, societal constraints

Overview: This inspiring play follows young characters dreaming of breaking free from societal expectations to achieve their ambitions. It explores themes of hope, resilience, and the pursuit of dreams.

Why it stands out: Its uplifting message and poetic language make it a motivating piece for young performers and audiences alike.

Why the 2015 Plays Are Still Relevant

The themes addressed in the 2015 lineup are surprisingly timeless, yet they also reflect specific societal concerns from the mid-2010s. Here's why these plays continue to be relevant:

- Social Justice & Activism: Plays like Bystander and Where Do We Go From Here? foster critical discussions about social responsibility, a topic that remains urgent.
- Identity & Mental Health: The exploration of personal identity and mental health in The Inconsistent Human and Stiletto resonates strongly in today's climate of increased awareness.
- Global Issues: The Empty Quarter and The Lost Boy highlight refugee experiences and trauma, emphasizing empathy and understanding.
- Adolescent Experience: Plays such as The Wolves and The Sky is Ours authentically portray teenage life, capturing its joys and struggles.

These themes not only challenge young performers but also serve as educational tools, encouraging empathy, critical thinking, and creative expression.

Impact on Young Performers and Audiences

The 2015 plays have had a significant impact on young performers and audiences in several ways:

- Encouraging Creativity: The scripts often include opportunities for improvisation, physical theatre, and innovative staging, fostering creative risk-taking.
- Building Confidence: Performing contemporary, socially relevant plays helps young actors develop confidence in their abilities and voices.
- Promoting Dialogue: The themes stimulate discussions about societal issues, enabling young people to engage critically with the world around them.
- Developing Empathy: Plays dealing with mental health, displacement, and social justice cultivate empathy and understanding among audiences.

The nationwide reach of the Connections program means that these plays have been performed in diverse settings, from school halls to professional theatres, amplifying their educational and cultural impact.
