The Historical Foundations of London's Language

Old English and the City's Early Roots

London's linguistic history begins deep in the past, rooted in Old English, the language spoken by Anglo-Saxons who settled in Britain over a millennium ago. The earliest forms of London speech can be traced back to the 7th and 8th centuries, with the local dialect evolving through centuries of influence from Latin, Norman French, and later, other European languages.

- Old English Influence: The Anglo-Saxon settlers introduced a Germanic linguistic base that laid the foundation for modern English.
- Latin and Norman French: The Roman occupation and subsequent Norman Conquest significantly impacted vocabulary, legal terminology, and administrative language, embedding Latin and French influences into London's dialect.
- Middle and Early Modern English: The Renaissance period saw a flourishing of English literature and vocabulary, further shaping London's local speech.
