The Changing Perception of Marriage Among Women

Historical Context and Societal Expectations

For centuries, marriage has been viewed as a milestone of adulthood, stability, and social acceptance. However, these traditional notions are increasingly being challenged.

Today?s women are questioning the societal narrative that marriage is necessary for happiness or fulfillment. They recognize that marriage is not a one-size-fits-all solution and that personal happiness and self-actualization should come first. This shift is partly driven by greater access to education, economic independence, and a broader awareness of diverse life paths.
